bers yesterday from the "Rump" branch, which gives them sixty-two members, and a majority holding certificates from the State of Ohio. The delegates from the State of Ohio, including the delegations from Laurens and Edgefield Counties, who hold their certificates from the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court took under advisement the application for a writ to compel the Secretary of State to deliver the election returns to Wallace, the Speaker of the Democratic House. An argument will be made before the same tribunal to-day for a writ of quo warrant to require the Hayes Electors to show by what right they exercise the functions of their office. It will be too late, however, to do any thing. The Supreme Court is not held in much regard by Republicans in South Carolina.

We have nothing definite from Florida. The wires broke down last night and left our special from Tallahassee in a state of suspended animation. The Democrats hope that the Tilden Electors will be given certificates, but news comes from Washington that Senator Conover has a dispatch saying that the Hayes Electors will be surely counted in.

The Banner.

Official Paper of the County.

L. HARPER, Editor and Proprietor.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 8, 1876.

Supplement to the Banner.

We this week send to our readers a Message containing the President's Message, and also the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury.

In consequence of the delay in issuing last week's BANNER, we furnish our readers with only a half sheet this week, but the matter in our Supplement will more than make up for all deficiencies.

Cincinnati Enquirer: Eliza Pinkston is called "Lize," for short, and there is no truth at the bottom of the Louisiana Wells.

The New York World, after reciting the circumstances of the South Carolina outrage, demands that Congress shall impeach Grant.

Congress has not as yet made any movement towards the impeachment of Grant. Why delay? Honesty, justice, liberty, all demand it.

After a full hearing Judge Savage refused to grant an injunction to restrain the Republican electors of Nebraska from casting their votes for Hayes.

President Grant's message has one good feature—its brevity. Grant says that it is his last message. Lous Dec. Read it, and make your own comments.

The conspiracy in Louisiana to count Hay in 1880 appears that it excites the disgust of the intelligent and respectable portion of the Republican party in the North.

When the Radicals get through with Eliza Pinkston, the feminine African Mischance of the age, it is understood that Barnum will place her on exhibition in his museum.

It was a remark of the late Abraham Lincoln that "the party that can elect a President can inaugurate him." That is the sentiment of the entire Democracy of the United States.

If Rutherford B. Hayes can accept the Presidency as the gift of the South Carolina Returning Board, he can no longer fault the people for believing that he stole that widow woman's four hundred dollars.

In view of the complications attending the Presidential election the proprietors of Sullivan's and Aug's pool rooms at Cincinnati, have declared all bets on the general result off, and are refunding money to holders of pool tickets.

Hayes may be counted in by fraud, forgery and perjury; but the legally elected President, Samuel J. Tilden, will be inaugurated on the 5th of March next. Congress is the final "Returning Board," and will see to it that there is a fair count.

Our wish has been gratified. The first act of Congress was to appoint committees to visit Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, to examine the process by which the electoral vote of those States was stolen from Tilden and given to Hayes.

The Radical "Outrage Mill," which ground out affidavits by the wholesale at the Custom House, in New Orleans, entirely ended the business. Most of the affidavits have been pronounced daring forgeries by the persons whose names purport to have been attached to them.

It is said that Senator Sherman brought with him from New Orleans a carpet-bag stuffed full of "horrible outrages," of the Eliza Pinkston variety with which to illustrate a speech he is preparing, justifying the unparalleled villainy of the Radical Returning Board in Louisiana.

The utterance of Speaker Randall that it was the duty of the House of Representatives to resist every encroachment of the Executive, was received with a shout of applause by the Democratic members, while the Radical Congressmen were as mute as oysters. Randall is unquestionably the right man in the right place.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Charles Foster, member of Congress from the Tenth District of Ohio, remarked, on Friday, "Of course Hayes will be counted in Louisiana. What have we got the Returning Board for?" This was said in a jokey manner; but he added in a more serious tone, "I have no doubt whatever that Tilden's majority in Louisiana is 8,000 on a fair count."

The large bronze statue of Daniel Webster, erected in the Central Park, New York, by Mr. Gordon W. Burnham, was unveiled on Saturday week, in the presence of a vast concourse of people. Mr. Everts delivered an eloquent oration on the occasion, and remarks were also made by Robert C. Winthrop. The total height of the statue above the ground 80 feet.

After hearing the hellish outrages perpetrated by its party friends in Louisiana, the Cincinnati Gazette exultingly shouts: "Louisiana joins the noble army of the Liberator's Party—Four Congressmen, all State Officers and Electors belong to Freedom's Party." What falsehood! What mockery! Four infamous Congressmen, all State Officers and Electors, were denounced and encouraged by the Radical leaders, deliberately stole the electoral votes from Tilden and gave it to Hayes, and this is the way "Louisiana joins the noble army of the Liberator's Party."

We are amazed that Senator Sherman, who has always borne the reputation of being an upright and honorable man, personally, should so far ignore his manhood as to sanction the damnable villainy of the Radical Returning Board in Louisiana.

A new Daily Democratic paper, to be called The Union, will soon be started at Washington, under the management of Judge Montgomery Blair, which will be the organ of President Tilden. The father of Judge Blair, (Francis P. Blair, Sr.) was the editor of The Globe, the organ of Jackson and Van Buren.

The sale of the Centennial Buildings at Philadelphia, took place on Friday last, and property which cost $2,500,000, brought only $296,160, under the salesman's hammer. The Main Building, as well as several other large structures on the ground, were bought by J. S. Morton, Esq., who represents a party of gentlemen who propose organizing a Permanent Exhibition Company.

The Brooklyn Theatre took fire at 11:30 on Tuesday night, just before the play of The Orphans was concluded, and the building was entirely consumed. There was a great panic among the audience, and nearly three hundred people were crushed, mangled and roasted. At the latest accounts two hundred bodies had been taken from the ruins, and the cellar was packed with the blackened remains.

The Marysville (Tenn.) Republican, formerly one of the most rabid Republican organs in the South, says Tilden is the choice of the American people for the Presidency, and publishes such paragraphs as the one annexed:

"When we wrote on the 8th inst. that bayonets are banished from American politics, we had lost sight of the fact that the Republican party was between hell and the iron-works, and some of its office-holders between Hayes and the Penitentiary."

Carl Schurz proposes to settle the Presidential muddle by an amendment to the Constitution, giving to the Supreme Court of the United States the power to count the electoral vote, and determine who is legally elected. Republicans would never consent to such nonsense as that, so long as they can get a crazy old negro woman like Eliza Pinkston, to swear to any lying, horrible tale they may concoct, as a basis for counting out the electoral vote of a Sovereign State.

The papers are publishing an account of an interview between Hon. A. S. Hewitt, President of the Democratic National Committee, and President Grant, wherein Mr. Hewitt is reported as being greatly pleased with the apparently candid and sincere manner of the President, and especially with a remark he made expressive of his desire to be relieved from the cares and responsibilities of office. We are surprised that Mr. Hewitt should place the slightest confidence in any statement Grant might make.

As the Clerk of the present House of Representatives, under the usage of Congress, will call the roll of the members-elect to the next Congress, which meets on the 4th of March next, we can see no good reason why he shall not call the names of the Democrats who were fairly and legally elected in Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, and who were counted out by the rascally Returning Boards in these States. The Democrats have got to fight the devil with fire.

Alabama U. S. Senator. Gen. John T. Morgan, of Selma was elected United States Senator from Alabama, on Tuesday last, to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of the Hon. George Goldsmith. Gen. Morgan is in the prime of life, and an earnest Democrat. He is a lawyer of high standing and extensive practice, and is conceded to be one of the ablest men in Alabama. He served in the Confederate army with distinction. His party services since the war have been of great value in redeeming his State from spoliation and radical rule.

The Radicals Becoming Alarmed. Washington telegram to New York Herald of Monday: The doubt about Mr. Hayes' election has spread to day among prominent Republicans, some of whom say privately that it would be a calamity to the party to have Hayes go with a suspicion of a dishonest count. These gentlemen admit frankly that the proceedings in South Carolina have been an almost fatal blunder for the party making the returns there doubtful and they acknowledge that the Louisiana Returning Board is entirely unworthy of confidence. Under these circumstances they say that to count in Hayes would ruin the party and cause the retirement of its leaders in disgrace at the next election. They are not inclined to hazard or suffer so much for a man they do not know and with whom they held but limited communication.

All Honor to the South Carolina Democracy. The Democrats of South Carolina, under the persecutions, wrongs, and outrages that have been perpetrated against them by the minions of Grant, have acted like patriots, gentlemen and Christians. If smitten on one cheek, they have turned the other. When illegally surrounded by soldiers, and threatened with violence, they solemnly protested, but offered no resistance. Such a spirit is making them friends every day, and it is not to be wondered at that Republican members of the Legislature should withdraw from the Rump organization, and unite with the Democrats—the friends and advocates of law and order. Grant and his tools did every thing in their power to provoke the Democrats of South Carolina into the commission of some lawless act, so as to form a pretext for shooting them down, and thus organizing another horrible civil war. But the despot has been disappointed.

Frank Blair's Opinion of Grant. From an interview at Lebanonworth, August 4, 1876.

Grant is ambitious, but he don't show it, and I tell you that if he is elected president he will set up a monarchy and establish himself emperor.

A military despotism will be established, and Grant will never leave the White House alive.

The man who established military despotism in ten States is ready to establish it in all the States. [A voice: "He has no policy."] I tell you he has a policy as much as Bonaparte had. HIS POLICY IS PERMANENT DICTATORIAL POWER. If you think he has no policy, you make a great mistake and endanger our country. I do not believe he would consent for the Presidency for four years to resign an office he holds for life.

TILDEN

Elected Certain!

Glory to God!

A Democratic Elector in Oregon!

ANOTHER IN VERMONT!

REJOICE, O, YE PEOPLE!

The Electoral Colleges of the different States met on Wednesday, and cast their votes according to law.

In Louisiana and South Carolina the persons declared elected by fraud, forgery and perjury, cast their votes for Hayes.

The legally elected electors in Louisiana cast their votes for Tilden.

FLORIDA. In Florida, the Radicals claim the election of the Hayes electors, the State ticket and both Congressmen by majorities from 830 to 630.

OREGON. In Oregon, Governor Grover gave the certificate of election to E. A. Cronin, the highest candidate on the Democratic Electoral Ticket, in place of Watts, the Radical Postmaster, who was ineligible.

The certificate declared that E. A. Cronin, Democrat, and W. H. Odell and J. C. Cartwright, Republicans, were duly and legally elected. The Republicans refused to act with Cronin, when the latter filled vacancy by electing J. N. T. Miller and John Parker, Republicans, and proceeded to cast the vote—2 for Hayes and 1 for Tilden. The Republicans also organized, when Watts resigned and was at once re-elected, when the three cast their votes for Hayes. This proceeding being illegal will be of no validity.

VERMONT. In Vermont, Mr. Aldrich, the contesting Elector against Postmaster Sollace, offered to vote for Tilden, but was refused, when he appointed himself a messenger and signified his own certificate of votes, and gave notice that he would go to Washington and fight it out in Congress.

SOUTH CAROLINA. The Democratic House met on Wednesday in Carolina Hall, when another member was sworn in who deserted from the Mackey or Rump House, making 63, or a Constitutional quorum. The Supreme Court has decided the Democratic House to be the legal House of Representatives, and will issue a mandamus compelling the Secretary of State to turn over the returns for Governor and Lieutenant Governor to Speaker Wallace. The Democrats are jubilant over these events.

The Democratic electors met at 12 m., and after a long session cast the vote of the State for Tilden and Hendricks, and entered a protest in the mandamus case against Secretary of State Hayne, compelling him not to deliver the returns to Speaker Mackey, as the Supreme Court directed.

Wade Hampton Declares He is Governor and Governor He Will Be. New York, Dec. 6.—Wade Hampton, in his speech in Columbia last night, said to the people: I am supported by the property owners of the State, and by good men of all classes. Two months ago I said I would submit my claims before the people of South Carolina, and if elected Governor that by the eternal God I would have no hand in the election of a President and falsehoods, all the powers of the State Government, and bayonets of President Grant, I have been by 75,000 white men and 17,000 colored men chosen to be Governor of the State of South Carolina, and I will be their Governor or they shall have a military government.

The Louisiana Outrage Consummated. As every body anticipated, the corrupt and infamous Returning Board of Louisiana on Tuesday counted in the Hayes electors by a majority of about 4,500, notwithstanding the fact that the Tilden electors had a clear majority of 8,000. To bring about this result, the Board threw out the returns from the Parishes of Grant, East Feliciana, De Soto, Bossier, Franklin, Claiborne and Calcasieu, and part of the returns in the Parishes of East Baton Rouge, West Feliciana, Ouachita and Moorhouse, and Kellogg, the usurping and fraudulent Governor of Louisiana, who was a candidate for Elector-at-Large, has certified to the legality of this villainous proceeding!

The Democratic electors, who were fairly and legally chosen have received certificates of election from McEnery, de jure Governor of Louisiana, and have cast their votes for Tilden and Hendricks. The Democrats claim that two of the Hayes electors are clearly ineligible.

Another part of this diabolical outrage is to count out the Democratic State officers-elect in Louisiana, and three Democratic Congressmen.

If the American people tamely submit to such revolutionary proceedings, then they are not fit for self-government.

Brother Glossner, of the Mansfield Shield and Banner "lets the cat out of the bag," by telling how church bazaars are managed. He says: Some ladies borrow money from their husbands, by material, and make up fancy articles, which they give to the bazaar. Then they change places, borrow more money from their husbands, and by the articles back again.

The City Council and the Gas Company are still at loggerheads. At the meeting of Council, on Monday evening, a resolution was passed fixing the price of gas at $2.75 to private consumers and $2.50 to the City; but we understand the Company will not agree to this proposition, and as a result, we shall probably have to grope our way through the dark streets during the balance of the winter.

It seemeth unto us that the Rev. Dr. Presley, of Newark, has had more than his share of persecution. The last charge against him is, that he entered the pulpit recently in a state of intoxication. A Newark correspondent of the Columbus Journal, says that the statement is an unmitigated lie, and it originated from the fact that Dr. Presley, on the occasion referred to, took sick in the pulpit, and had to dismiss his congregation.

A Card to the Public. For many years we have made two medicines suited to the ailments of a vast class of sufferers. Thousands of cures have been made by them, and, in fact, the word failure could not be coupled with them. But within the last two years counterfeiters of our medicines have sprung up, dangerous in their close imitation of our Trade Mark.

To secure the people we have offered upon each genuine box of Holloway's Ointment, the fac simile of the signature of our agent, Mr. Joseph Haydock. To counterfeit is felony. We shall relentlessly pursue any one who imitates this with the utmost vigor of the law. We most earnestly beg that the great mass of the American people will aid us in our effort to protect their health, and help us in our task of bringing these most unprincipled men to the bar of justice. Uniformly refuse to purchase medicines purporting to be ours unless Mr. Jos. Haydock's is attached to each box of Pills or of Ointment and the end will soon be reached.
